

The Prehistoric Society-
SUERC Radiocarbon
Award

Through the generosity of SUERC, The Prehistoric Society is able to offer an annual award of up to three radiocarbon dates relevant to any field of Prehistory. The applicant(s) must NOT come from a commercial environment nor should the project be financed by one of the national agencies. Applications will be treated on merit and considered with the other Prehistoric Society grant applications (see website for the annual award timetable).

A completed SUERC sample submission form for each sample must be submitted with each application.
